

Instant Runoff Voting: Use in US Jurisdictions

Jurisdiction	Implementation Date	Voting Equipment
San Francisco (477,651 reg voters)	2004 (5 elections)	Sequoia (2008-present) Central & precinct-base scanners ES&S (2004-07)
Oakland (187,084 reg voters)	2010 (scheduled)	Sequoia
Berkeley (86,020 reg voters)	2010 (scheduled)	Sequoia
San Leandro (Pop: 81,850)	2010 (projected)	Sequoia
Burlington VT (32,992 reg voters)	2006 (2 mayoral elections)	Premier regional affiliate LHS Associate's AccuVote system
Pierce County WA (468,656 reg voters)	2008 (1 election)	Sequoia central scanner
Cary NC  (Pop: 132,647)	2007 (1 election)	ES&S M100 and 650, counting first choices, then alternative methods to get count done (Cary did hand- sort./count in 2007 and this year would use all-machine method described in attached document)
Hendersonville NC  (Pop: 12,751)	2007 (1 election)	Used in 2007 and to be used in 2009 on ES&S IvoTronic (touchscreen) system. Data outputted into commercial off-the-shelf spreadsheet
Takoma Park MD  (Pop: 17,229)	2007 (2 elections)	Straight handcount in Jan. 2007, True ballot in Nov. 2007 and will use "Scantegrity" system for Nov. 2009. Doesn't need to use federally certified system.

Louisiana (overseas voters & out-of state military voters)	Since early 90s	Handcount
South Carolina (overseas voters)	2006 (all federal & state elections w/runoffs)	Handcount
Arkansas (overseas voters)	2006 (all federal & state elections) 2007 (added all local elections)	Handcount
Cambridge MA  (Pop: 100,000)	1943 (elections every 2 yrs.)	Starting 1997, Premier regional affiliate LHS Associate's AccuVote system (handcount in previous years)
Minneapolis  (200,000 reg. voters)	2009 (scheduled)	ES&S M100 to record first choices, then do hand-sort/count like Cary in 2007
Aspen CO  (Pop: 5,800)	May 2009	Premier optical scan to count first choices, then True Ballot
Memphis (Reg. voters: 460,000)	2011 (scheduled)
Telluride CO (Pop: 2,221)	2011 (for mayoral elections)
Santa Fe NM (Reg. voters: 52,000)	No date certain
Ferndale MI (Pop: 22,105)	No date certain
Sarasota FL	No date certain	